EASTERN POINT, CONN.

New London, Conn., June 19.—The annual opening of the Griswold is always one of the social events of Eastern Point. The young folks from the cottage colony gather to hear a salute to the incoming season, fired from the tiny brass cannon, and to watch the great American flag unfurl as it nears the top of the flagpole. The grounds from the hotel and cottages meet and renew the interrupted social life of the season before.

On Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Morton F. Plant watched the preparation for the opening from the deck of Mr. Plant's new steam yacht, the Kanawha.

George Hart McCutcheon and a party of friends arrived by automobile on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson Scott of New York are at the Griswold.

More than 400 bankers gathered at the Griswold on Friday to attend the joint convention of the Bankers Association of New England. The convention was in session for two days and was formally opened on Friday night with a dinner. Ex-President William H. Taft, dinner Marcus H. Holcomb of Connecticut and William A. Law, president of the American Bankers' Association, were present.

At Pequot the cottage owners are beginning to assemble for the season. Among this week's arrivals are: Mr. and Mrs. Vernon C. Brown, Mrs. R. P. Keady, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ogden and Miss Frances Ogden Jones. Earlier in the month Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moore, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Kirkland, Mrs. C. S. Gathrie, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bliss and Isaac Townsend arrived.

Among the all season visitors who are now at the Griswold are Frederick Speer and Miss Speer of New York; Mrs. A. E. Lane, Miss Lane and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Brand of Chicago; Mrs. E. E. Fox of New York; Mrs. L. W. Fox and Miss Fox of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Stone and Capt. A. W. Burns of London.

LONG BEACH.

LONG BEACH, L. I., June 19.—The usual activities which mark the beginning of the season are well under way here, and the familiar habits of Long Beach are beginning to arrive and settle down for the summer.

The bathing is very good this year, and both yesterday and to-day saw great numbers in the surf.

At the Hotel Nassau, where social affairs center, many luncheon, dinner and bridge parties were given this week. The Sphinx Club, which always entertains elaborately, gave a dinner to thirty members today. Among the visitors this week were Gen. and Mrs. Charles Miller of Quebec, Culpepper Exum and party, Ben Ali Haggis, S. Rankin Drew, Mr. and Mrs. W. Scheraga and Miss Irene Fenwick, the Marquis de Spinoia, Nigel Barrie, Mrs. Olga Petrova, and her husband, Dr. H. S. Russell, John da Silva and Antonio P. Fochi of London, Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Wilkening, Mr. and Mrs. A. Van Winkle, Mr. and Mrs. A. Bryant Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Corbett, Mr. and Mrs. O'Neill Shotwell, Mrs. M. D. Chapman, S. B. Fleming, Robert Stuart and A. L. Spratley.

Come and see what Canada is doing for the Empire—and help her celebrate her "100 years of peace" with the United States.

Come and see her many scenic attractions—especially those encompassed in the trip from "Niagara to the Sea"—a trip 800 miles long, over lakes and rivers and rapids.

In Canada you will find the usual freedom for the American Tourist—no annoying restrictions—passports quite unnecessary. Canada is sending soldiers to fight in Europe—but that doesn't disturb her from a commercial or travel standpoint—it only makes her a little more interesting to the Tourist.
